ACTIVITÉS / ENGAGEMENT

Since 2014, I am an Amnesty International activist. In 2015-16 and 2017, I was spokesperson of Amnesty HU Berlin, in 2018 in charge of communication at Sciences Po Paris.

Since 2014 I am editor and host of the Franco-German program "Muckefunk" of the non-commercial radio station 88vier.de in Berlin. In 2016, I worked as a journalist for the culture department of Sciences Po TV.

Between 2015 and 2017, I was editor and anchorman of the German edition of the radio program Europhonica from the European Parliament Strasbourg.

Since 2017, I am editor and since 2019 also host of the show Scènes Parisiennes on Radio Germaine which covers cultural news in Paris.

Between 2003 and 2017 I sang in several choirs - among others in the Franco-German choir of Berlin and in the major choir of Düsseldorf. We gave concerts in St. Malo, Florence, Rome, Berlin and Paris.

I made many short films including one on the women's role in the family in Cameroon, on the north of Sweden and on the Nuit Debout in Paris. My last photo exhibitions (in Düsseldorf and Berlin in cooperation with the OFAJ) showed series photographed in Paris and Cameroon. In April 2019, I presented portraits about waste and the role of plastic in everyday life at Sciences Po Paris.
